LITTLE TERROR

A new opera for children and families

To get there she has to go through the front door

to the deep
puddle at the end of the street

and by the
boring
playground with
the parents who
never do
anything fun

She has to wear her
dreaded pink dress

but she'd rather be a knight!

Little Terror is an interactive family
opera all about
finding inner
strength and
processing your
emotions, made
with and for Learning Disabled
audiences.
